Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo

By Citlalie Del Carmen Tello

What was the problem?

Annexation to the U.S.

- Supported by Sam Houston
- Supported by most Texans
- Not supported by the United States until 1837 even though it could lead to western expansion
- U.S. was worried about damaging relationship with Mexico and tipping the balance of power of the U.S. slave states

$2010, TESCCC

SCOPE

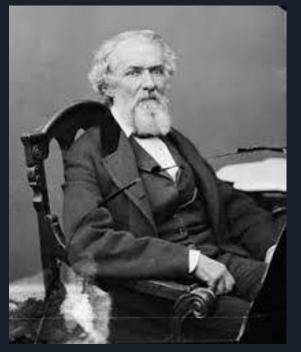

James Polk

Nicholas P. Trist

Managed the negotiations with Mexico, sent by president Polk. In the book Mexicanos by Manuel G. Gonzales, he explains how Polk was upset at the "lenient" pact.

Mexican American War

The Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo

Treaty Of Guadalupe Hidalgo and the Border with Texas along the Rio Grande

at the army filling by first it is a made a built a first on a

The bar had the for filling the first the bar the stranger and the builted have gen the lass present and down an her as hid by a dreame dedies the sum descent from the moves the of the balance there of the manufacture on the factors and says and apply caralaketer manually say to make another the hand a for I low a so to to to the final have a literate a discrete the works a for is rate to right from baser is there is her is not by ap adriat chair rough have availabled the participation the from a hough to make the Stagen with some south you a boundaries and appears the convert to may do water all prover y apparized to where or marries anarrive government and the part of the of the same of the same an ass in such that there are lander that fickers how many a wide a laker deto the here of sold in the star is a first of the sold of the sold of the sold of the that in beau, the hearter allow derive both the produced and This he had be which and have do to a the good a by soil 101. I stop of the Minist mars and days de la her and the Brindon't of desires happenline and her den has to have can high the bar a pland the little Indert. Survey 3 Considering the Connect of Andrew Merchanders and the and and the hope of the first a product of a second state of the hope of him of the said Infaller colores materia phener to dear unparticipant some assurement hope to produce on the second trace we frather full formation and hadrender surter to be por and the fundation of the split forthe have again there are more than from the arth of theme surregally opened at a charge ware to and against the francis

Sand of from the second of the second second

Sources

https://www.history.com/topics/treaty-of-guadalupe-hidalgo

https://www.history.com/topics/mexican-american-war

GONZALES, MANUEL G. Mexicanos, Second Edition: A History of Mexicans in the United States. 2nd ed